

ASHLEY PAJOR

• sustainability & communications specialist •

ABOUT ME

A sustainability specialist with expertise in circular economy and sustainable materials. Over eight years of experience managing international projects, building cross-functional relationships, and developing project and communication strategies.

EDUCATION

2019 - 2022 • Harvard University
MA Sustainability

2018 • Cornell University
Certificate Marketing Strategy

2010 - 2013 • Arizona State University
BA Anthropology

EXPERIENCE

2021 Algramo

Circular Economy Research Assistant

- Subject matter expert on sustainable materials, notably plastic, bio-plastics, and compostable plastics.
- Grant writer for European focused opportunities
- Developer of impact reporting methodologies
- Circular economy and materials researcher

2020 CREO Syndicate

Sustainable Materials Graduate Research Fellow

- Conducted research on sustainable material science, companies, and financial projections.
- Wrote a 20+ page investment primer on sustainable material investment opportunities.

2018-2020

Reingold

Senior Communications Associate

- Project manager for USAID storytelling training contract.
- Senior communications strategist for U.S. Census Bureau's 2020 Census campaign.
- Partnership and relationship management specialist for 2020 Census campaign.

PATH

2015-2020

Program Associate

- Co-launched new program, Digital Square, through operations and branding.
- Wrote communications materials, newsletters, website content, reports, and more.
- Community manager for digital health technology developers.